

First & Last Name: _____ Random Generator #: _____

Directions: Write in complete sentences for each of the three open response questions. Be neat and clear in your responses. A good rule of thumb to think about for this would be the number of quality sentences for each open response question : 5 = A; 4 = B; 3 = C; 2 = D; 1 = F and use detail to support your main point.

Student Self-Evaluation - "Tell the truth - all the time!" -Randy Pausch

- 1) Name one new concept you learned this quarter. Give a specific example to support your response using words, numbers and pictures (If your picture is related to writing, then it will count as one sentence.)

.

- 2) What is one thing you did well in math class this quarter.

.

- 3) What is one thing you could improve on in math class next quarter.

Multiple Choice

Identify the choice(s) that best completes the statement or answers the question.

- _____ 1) What are you most proud of right now?
- A. your attitude C. your grit E. your teamwork
B. your grades D. your progress F. your knowledge
- _____ 2) How do you feel now at the end of the quarter?
- A. proud C. confident E. angry
B. disappointed D. comfortable F. confused
- _____ 3) What was most difficult for you this quarter?
- A. tests C. basic skills E. notebook quiz
B. homework D. in-class work F. working in groups
- _____ 4) Where did you get most of your help this quarter?
- A. friends C. teacher E. parents
B. online D. relative F. other
- _____ 5) What is the quality of your spiral notebook this quarter?
- A. my best work C. could be neater E. a little incomplete
B. organized and complete D. could be more complete F. a mess
- _____ 6) What is most important to you in your life right now?
- A. family C. school E. good health
B. friends D. sports F. other
- _____ 7) What grade do you think you have earned this quarter? (Do not worry about +/-)
- A. A C. C E. Incomplete
B. B D. D F. F